

Come for the day
Stay for the weekend

COCKERMOUTH GEORGIAN FAIR

Saturday, May 5th 2012

Patrons: Lord & Lady Judd

Featuring

*STREETLIFE 1778 - Unique Living History,
Musicians, Dancers, Maypole Dancing,
Redcoats, Street Theatre, Circus Skills,
Period Craft & Farmers Street Markets,
Costume Parade, Sedan Chair Racing*

Dress up, join in, be there!!!

For more information, call Cockermouth TIC
01900 822634 www.cockermouth.org.uk

COCKERMOUTH

GEORGIAN

FAIR

Thursday, May 3rd, 7:30pm at Christ Church

An Evening of Georgian Song

*With local singers and musicians from schools and the community
£2 adults on the door, students & children are free*

Friday, May 4th: Prelude at Christ Church:

7.00pm: Ladies of a Certain Age, a lively and humorous celebration of all the dreadful dowagers, spluttering spinsters, and haughty matrons of Austen's novels.

9.00pm: Georgian Country Dance, including demonstration dances, with band & caller - all welcome!

Tickets available exclusively from the Kirkgate Centre (01900 826448)
£7 ea or £12 for combined entry to both events

Saturday May 5th: GEORGIAN FAIR

Our historic past brought to life across the town:

Period Craft & Farmers Street Markets

STREETLIFE 1778, from the Castle to Wordsworth House including all nooks & crannies - unique Discovery Walks! Bookable on the day!

Maypole and Traditional Dancing & Music

with Belfagan Women's Morris & over 100 performers across town

Street Theatre, Circus Skills, Sedan Chair Racing,

Redcoat Marching Displays, Exhibitions,

Costume Parade plus special events at Wordsworth House

PARK and RIDE

Sunday, May 6th: Postscript:

From 11am: Dancing Demonstrations, with performers continuing the spirit of music & dance in Cockermouth's surrounding countryside.

2 - 5pm, All Saints Church: Promenade Concert :-

1812 in Cockermouth, featuring a specially commissioned arrangement by local composer, Dr Philip Wood, for a grand orchestra, with players of all ages drawn from our community - a commemoration of the events which inspired the original Tchaikowsky composition, our contribution to the 2012 Cultural Olympiad.

Admission by donation

Organised by the Cockermouth Georgian Fair Organising Group, supported by our Friends, many volunteers & organisations.

Kirkgate Arts

