COCKERMOUTH

GEORGIAN

FAIR

Cockermouth, birthplace of William & Dorothy Wordsworth, (not forgetting Fletcher Christian & John Dalton), welcomes you to a celebration of our Georgian Heritage, with events held throughout our 18th Century Gem town:

Friday 2nd May: Prelude @ The Kirkgate Centre

7pm: A Regency Romance, a sparkling History Wardrobe presentation of how Jane Austen would dress for that special occasion. With readings.

From 8pm: Georgian Ceilidh, including a demonstration by Adlington Folk Dance Group (featured in TV's Pride & Prejudice), with band & caller, plus more familiar ceilidh dances - all welcome!

Limited Tickets, available from the Kirkgate Centre (01900 826448) or Cockermouth Tourist Information Centre. £5 ea or £8 for combined entry

Saturday 3rd May: GEORGIAN FAIR

Our historic past brought to life in the newly revitalised Market Place and across the town:

Period Craft & Farmers Street Market

STREETLIFE 1778, from the Castle to Wordsworth House including all nooks & crannies - our history brought to life!

Music & Dancing, with over 100 performers across the town plus instrumental & choral concerts throughout the day

Street Theatre, Circus Skills

Sedan Chair Racing, Redcoat Display

Exhibitions, Craft Demonstrations, Costume Parade

plus special events at Wordsworth House

PARK and RIDE
